Fer The Tribune. "ASK ME NO MORE." A Song of Temperance-BY J. A. SHEA. Ask me no more! I hate the bowl! Glories have perished in its wave-High aspirations of the soul

Which Gop for nobler purpose gave-Genius of heav'n-invited wing. And humbler talent born to fame Have poison'd their immortal spring By mingling it with liquid flame. Ask me no more! would Friendship guide My steps to yonder precipice Where boils the black, sulphureous tide Down in the fathomless abyss? Will Love, with ripe and sinless lip, If I would at her shrine adore, Love is no traitor! ask no more. Ask me no more! I never sought, Thro' bowers to Bacchus consecrate, Those pure etherial fields of thought Where high and classic honors wait. 'T is not by drowning Reason's wing It soars to such ambitious hight; Not thus I sought Castalia's spring-I've ceas'd to be such Neophyte.

Tell me that I the draught must sip?

Remember how the masters plied At Sparta's feasts their slaves with wine, That Sparta's youth should see how died Within them all was deem'd divine: How he the Macedonian king, Yea, king of the unbounded world, Was by the wine cup, like a thing Of crime, to death inglorious hurl'd.

Then ask no more! my banner's up E'en in the hottest of the field, And he who spurns the damning cup Bears, ev'n as I, a charmed shield. Wine for the coward-blood-red wine-Fill it to trembling fulness up! But now and henceforth ever mine The vigor of the chrystal cup!

Trial of Captain Williamson. Reported for The Tribune.

NAVAL COURT MARTIAL, On board the U. S. Ship North Carolina, lying in the New York Harbor.

THIRD DAY ...... THURSDAY, Sept. 22. The court having convened at the usual hour and the minutes read over, W. C. Jeannette, a midshipman of the Warren, was called. Witness knows nothing of the alleged drunkenness of Capt. Williamson while the Warren was getting under weigh to go to sea: saw the Captain on one occasion holding on to the mizzen rigging.

Cross-examined .- Was on the deck of the Warren when the ship was in danger off San Rosa. The Captain sent an order by witness to Mr. Nobie that night to work her off Cannot remember any other orders. Witness recollects that Capt. Williamson was lame, and he saw him held on to the mizen rigging several times. It was quite calm when the ship was off San Rosa, with thick weather. The ship was about a mile from the land, in my opinion, on the previous evening. By the Court .- Witness is sixteen years old and has been at sea six months.

Lieut. Noble recalled fer the defence -Mr. Guthrie did not tell me on the morning of the 28th that the anchor must be let go. Witness does not think he was present when the offer of the file of marines to invade Mexico was made to the Doctor, but thinks he was present in the cabin when a subsequent conversation took place about it. If made in the boat coming from Vera Cruz, witness was not present. Had it from the Captain. It was only a playful remark, and witness never considered it otherwise, and as a proof of it when it was proposed by witness to land the marine ward on the Isle of Sacfricio in Mexico, the Captain objected saying it was not proper to land an armed force in a foreign country. Witness testified before to the flogging of the bey Bellows, and thinks it was inflicted with a cat. Question by the Court-Have you had any difficulty with the accused during the Court

Witness-Most certainly not Mr. Hamilton objected strongly to this kind of cross examination, and the discussion getting rather high, one of the members of the Court remarked that no one doubted the veracity of the witness but the counsel. It ended by the question being put upon the record.

Here the case on the part of the defence closed—the Judge

Here the case on the part of the defence closed—the Judge Advocate stating that he had no more testimony in support of the first set of charges. With respect to the second set of charges, he proposed to arraign the accused on the ecopy of the charges which he served on him.

To this Air. Hamilton objected and cited the law to show that his client could not be tried on the second set provided they were known to the Government when the first set were framed by the Department.

To upset this position, Mr. Rhind, the Midshipman who had brought the charges, was caded, and he stated that he did not send the charges to the Department mutil the 2th of August. He mentioned the matter of the charges on the 24in of April. He also read a very long letter, full of companits which he had written to the secretary on the subject paints which he had written to the Secretary on the subject of the difficulties on board the Warren. This letter contained some of the most extraordinary statements, which, if true, went to show that part of the officers were at one time in a state of mutisy, and several left the thip in a boat although fired upon by the Marine Guard as the boat left the

The second set of charges were next read First—Being drunk at French's Hotel, Norfolk, on several different occasions between the 23th of October and the 1 t of November, 1841; again on the 25th December, 1841, and on the 1st of January, 1847; then habitually drunk for a period of five months between the 8th of October, 1841, and the 9th of March, 1842.

In sending the Master at Arms to seeze the property of the steerage officers by force, on which occasion the midshipmen were in a state of open muting and resisted the execution of the order by producing their pistols, &c. For absointely laying violent hands on midshipman Law, having his persons accided by the mannes on the quarter dick, on suspicion that he was armed; tearing as clothes, destroying his effects, &c.

Mr. Handidon put in his protest against being tried on these charges, and the court was decred.

On our re-admission the Judge Advocate annothed that the Court had overrolled the project. To this decision the accused excepted, and Mr. Hamiltonalso read a long objection to the charges and the room was cleared for the purion to the charges and the room was cleared for the purion to the charges and the room was cleared for the pur-tion to the charges and use 100m was cleared for the pur-pose of enabling the Court to decide on the objections. After a long discussion there, Havens decided that the charge of his being drunk on the 23th of December, 1341, and the 1st of January, 1842, must be struck out, as well as the charge alwaying that he threatened to order the ma-riues to fay violent hands on the midshipmen must be struck out for informanty. All the other charges were to be re-The accused then pleaded not guilty to the remainder of the charges

A. C. Rhind esumined -Witness was stopping at French's Hotel last tall, and while there saw the accused several times in a state of intoxication under the influence of liquor. Witness believed it from the manner of the accused, which is better to be conceived than described. He would talk loud, and his gait and manner were those of a drunken

Q. What do you know of the charge of habitual drunk-

Mr. Hamilton objected to the question, but the objection was overruied.

Witness was on board the Warren, and to the best of his belief he saw the accused frequently intoxicated between the 18th of October and the 9th of March last. Witness and another midstipsian, named Madison, were arrested for smoking segars on board the Warren, and kept confined tor 30 days, or thereabout. After the ship arrived at Pensacola we were restored to duty by order of the Commodore. Was according to the confined to the commodore. Was condeck on one occasion on board the Warrea, when the Captain gave orders to the Master at Arms to go into the steerage and take away a violin belonging to midshipman Weston. On another occasion witness was on the deck, it being his watch, and the Captain was also on deck, when an order was given to go for Mr. Weston. When he came Capt. W. asked if he was playing on a violin. He said the was; and the Captain asked if he was aware that all hands had been ordered on deck. He replied that he was not, and after some other woods had passed. Mr. W. was susand after some other words had passed, Mr. W. was su-pended and sent below. Mr. W. was not disrespectful to the Captain, nor had all hands been ordered on deck. On another occasion the accused sent for witness and the other steerage others, and asked what were their causes of com-plain against him. He, witness, feeely spoke his opinion of he accused, for which the witness was sent below and sus pended. I te tool the accused that hinself and the other-had attended to their duty, but instead of being treated like officers and genteemen, they had been treated like dogs. After this the accused desisted from a further search, but called Mr. Low on deck and placed him under arrest.

By the Court—Saw the accused once so much inoxicated as to fall off the poop ladder. He was frequently unable to keep his feet, and the manner in which he gave his orders convinced are he was intoxicated. He was also drunk when he arrested witness at St. Thomas's. WAR! WAR! WAR!—The Wig-Makers have declared hostilities against our neigh-bor, Dr. JAYNE, on account of his HAIR TONIC, which bor, Dr. JAYNE, on account of his HARR TONIC, which is knocking all their business into a 'cocked hat.' Ladies and Gentlemen, eld and young, are flocking to the Doctor's standard. Heads long divested of even the first rudiments of hair, after using his Hair Tonic, soen appear with new and flowing locks, which Absalom himself might have envied. Beardless boys are seen with large and bushy whis. kers, and ladies smile again through their own raven ringlets, more beautiful and bewitching than ever. Ba d beads are dofting their wigs and throwing them to the 'moles and bats,' while the wig-makers stand aghast as they behold the demolition of their business. POMAN EYE BALSAM, for Weak and Inflamed Eyes—This Balsam is a prescription of me of the most celebrated ocnlists, has been a long time in ase, and is confidently recommended to the public as the best and most successful salve ever used for inflammatory lisenses of the eye. In cases where the eyelids are very much infiamed, or the ball of the eve thickly covered with plood, it operates almost like magic, and removes all appearance of disease after two or three applications.

In Dimness of Sight caused by fixed attention to minute objects, or by long exposure to a strong light, and in the weakness or partial loss of sight from sickness or old age, it is a sure restorer, and should be used by all who find their eyesight failing without any apparent disease.

This Balsam has restored sight in many instances where almost TOTAL BLINDNESS, caused by excessive inflammation, had existed for years. Inflammation and soreness caused by blows, contusions, wounds on the eye, or by extraneous bodies of an irritating nature introduced under the eyelids, is very soon removed by the application of the Bal-sam. One trial will convince the most incredulous of its The following evidence of its superior excellency is from

Mrs. Davis, No. 77 Essex-street, has been cured of inflammation of the cyclids and weak eyes, of years' duration, by using only one jar of the Eye Balsan.

Miss Fitzgerald, No. 2 Market street, had for two or three years been so much afflicted with weak and inflamed eyes, that at times she could scarrely see to read. Her eyes have been completely restored by this Balsam, after all other means had failed. Hundreds have by its healing virtues been restored to sight, where almost total blindness, caused by excessive inflammation, had existed for years. Put up in small jars with full directions for use.
